CORAVIN SELECTION

Fine wines By the glass

In this section our sommelier team offer a selection of iconic wines from top vintages around the best wineregion

WHITE WINES 125ML

2012 Puligny-Montrachet, Domaine Leflaive, Burgundy, France 48.00

Leflaives have been extant in Puligny since 1717 but the real founder of the domaine was Joseph (1870-1953). However it was under the stewardship of Anne-Claude between 1990 and 2015 that the domaine became a leader in Burgundy's biodynamic movement, the whole property being converted in 1997. The wines are aged for 12 months in 25% new oak and are then transferred to steel tanks where they are allowed to clarify naturally over the second winter. Leflaive produces superb wines that combine richness and depth of fruit with elegance, refinement and perfect balance.

2013 Condrieu La Bonette, René Rostaing, Nothern Rhone Valley, France 23.00

From the famous lieu-dit high above the village, a deliciously complex Condrieu, Rostaing captures the biotite granitic soil profile and tames his Viognier with great skill, avoiding oak. A partially suppressed malolactic fermentation underlines the freshness.

2005 Pinot Bianco "Rarità", Cantina Terlano, Alto Adige, Italy 50.00

Rarity wines began when former winemaker Sebastian Stocker decided to follow the French model and let the wines rest longer on the lees. The wine spend a year maturing in wooden barrels, then is transferred to small steel tanks (2500 liters) where they are left to age for between ten and thirty years – enough time for them to develop their complex structure and wealth of aromas. When the winemaker feels the wine has attained a fine balance and harmony, it is bottled. After a further four or five years in the bottle, the wine is ready to be enjoyed to the full.

2010 "Batar", Querciabella, Tuscany, Italy 32.00

It is often described as the 'white Sassicaia'. Its story began in the 1970s with Giuseppe Castiglioni, one of Italy's largest wine collectors, he purchased some of the most elevated vineyards in the Chianti region and employed master consultant Giacomo Tachis, also responsible for Tignanello and Solaia. Planted with Chardonnay and Pinot Blanc, fusion of Puligny-Montrachet, Chassagne Montrachet and Tuscany.

RED WINES 125ML

1998 Château La Gomerie, St Emilion Grand Cru, Bordeaux, France 46.00

A tiny 2.52 hectares planted solely in Merlot vines, not far from the village of Saint-Émilion. Although the average vine age is 35 years, La Gomerie only made its debut in 1995. Made by Gérard Bécot, the proprietor of Château Beau-Séjour Bécot, La Gomerie's style is soft, sensual and lushly opulent, able to be enjoyed young but also capable of aging gracefully.

2011 Brunello di Montalcino, Cerbaiona, Tuscany, Italy 48.00

Tucked away off the Torronieri road the small Cerbaiona estate has been home to Diego & Nora Molinari since 1977, who produced their first vintage in 1980, all 70 bottles of it! The estate comprises 3 hectares of vines & 12 ha of wood and olive grove. Lying on the north-eastern shoulder of the Montalcino commune the estate enjoys a fine eastern exposition at 390 metres elevation, with good aeration & galestro/alberese clay soils. Diego does not use herbicides, pesticides or fungicides on his vines. This hands-off approach is reflected in their tiny winery, which is bolted onto the back of the 16th century property.

2005 Barolo "Bric dël Fiasc", Paolo Scavino, Piedmont, Italy 43.00

Here the Nebbiolo grapes were always the best: consequently in 1978 Enrico convinced his father Paolo to vinify these grapes separately and show for the first time the potential of this site. One of the first grand cru to be made as single vineyard Barolo. Image and identity of Paolo Scavino winery. In the Fiasco vineyard the Tortonian and Helvetian soils cross each other combining a great finesse and power. Classy and classic expression of Nebbiolo which requires time to develop all its complexity

1999 Charmes Chambertin, Grand Cru, Nicolas Potel, Burgundy, France 50.00

Nicolas Potel is a remarkable man, being both hugely talented and possessing exceptional levels of energy and drive. He is the son of the late, equally exceptional, Gérard Potel, who was the director of the excellent Pousse D'Or estate. He started his négociant house in 1998. The respect in which he is held enabled him to source excellent grapes and wines from some of the best domaines in Burgundy. The economic crisis in 2002 forced him to require more capital, which he acquired through Cottin Frères, who bought 100% of the business and now control the business that bears his name. Nicolas' style remains very pure. He vinifies with whole bunches when the stems are ripe. He is careful never to over extract nor over oak his wines, allowing the character of the vineyard and vintage to shine through

SWEET WINES 50ML

1998 Château d'Yquem, Sauternes, France 45.00

often described as the greatest sweet wine in the world. After centuries of family ownership, Yquem was finally sold in acrimonious circumstances to Louis Vuitton-Moët-Hennessy in 1999. However, its former owner and director Alexandre de Lur-Salucere mains in charge. Located on the highest hill in Sauternes and enjoys the best growing conditions in the whole appellation. The 110-hectare vineyard is planted with 80% Sémillon and 20% Sauvignon Blanc. Only fully botrytized fruit is picked by the 150 highly skilled pickers and yields are so low that each vine produces only one glass of wine. fermented in oak barrels (100% new) and is left in barriques to mature for up to 36 months. Intensely opulent when young, Yquem develops an extraordinary complexity and exotic richness when fully mature, with the best vintages lasting for over 50 year
