CORAVIN SELECTION

Fine wines By the glass

In this section our sommelier team offer a selection of iconic wines from top vintages around the best wineregion

WHITE WINES 125ML

2010 Puligny-Montrachet 1<sup>er</sup> Cru "Champ Canet", Etienne Sauzet, Burgundy, France 48.00

The original Etienne Sauzet put together a wine domaine of around 12 hectares and established the Sauzet name as one of the top two or three addresses in the village. The vineyards have been farmed organically since 2006 and after two years of experimentation all switched to biodynamic cultivation from 2010. The grapes are sorted, then pressed without crushing and fermented in oak until racking into tank before the next harvest, for a further six months élevage on the fine lees. The premiers crus receive between 20 per cent and 33 per cent new oak with 40 per cent for the grands crus.

2013 Condrieu La Bonette, René Rostaing, Northern Rhone Valley, France 26.00

From the famous lieu-dit high above the village, a deliciously complex Condrieu, Rostaing captures the biotite granitic soil profile and tames his Viognier with great skill, avoiding oak. A partially suppressed malolactic fermentation underlines the freshness.

2005 Pinot Bianco "Rarità", Cantina Terlano, Alto Adige, Italy 50.00

Rarity wines began when former winemaker Sebastian Stocker decided to follow the French model and let the wines rest longer on the lees. The wine spend a year maturing in wooden barrels, then is transferred to small steel tanks (2500 liters) where they are left to age for between ten and thirty years – enough time for them to develop their complex structure and wealth of aromas. When the winemaker feels the wine has attained a fine balance and harmony, it is bottled.

2013 Trebbiano d'Abruzzo, Valentini, Abruzzo, Italy 43.00

A white grape of French origin, is the most famous of the international grown-everywhere varieties because it gives its best wherever, retaining features that make it recognizable. Right from the first vintages this wine was praised by international critics who continue to consider it a reference for the finest Italian enology. Its taste is full and rotund and its organoleptic structure is so intense as to be comparable to a red, yet it lingers in your senses for its extraordinary finesse.

RED WINES 125ML

2005 Château Rauzan Ségla, Margaux, 2<sup>ème</sup> Grand Cru Classé, Bordeaux, France 48.00

Considered one of the leading 2<sup>ème</sup> Cru Classé Bordeaux properties during the 19th century., Rauzan-Ségla's reputation dwindled and a succession of disappointing wines were produced in the early 80s. When the property was sold the eminent Professor Peynaud was appointed as a consultant and the proportion of Cabernet Sauvignon in the blend was increased, as was the proportion of new oak used in the maturation process. Bought by Chanel in 1994, there are now 45 hectares of vineyards and the grapes (63% Cabernet Sauvignon, 35% Merlot, 2% Cabernet Franc) are fermented in temperature-controlled, stainless steel tanks. The wine is then matured in barriques (60% new) for 18 months.

2011 Brunello di Montalcino, Cerbaiona, Tuscany, Italy 48.00

Tucked away off the Torronieri road the small Cerbaiona estate has been home to Diego & Nora Molinari since 1977, who produced their first vintage in 1980, all 70 bottles of it! The estate comprises 3 hectares of vines & 12 ha of wood and olive grove. Lying on the north-eastern shoulder of the Montalcino commune the estate enjoys a fine eastern exposition at 390 metres elevation, with good aeration & galestro/alberese clay soils. Diego does not use herbicides, pesticides or fungicides on his vines. This hands-off approach is reflected in their tiny winery, which is bolted onto the back of the 16th century property.

2008 Sassicaia, Tenuta San Guido, Tuscany, Italy 75.00

The Sassicaia estate at Bolgheri came from Mario Incisa della Rocchetta's wife's family who had owned land there since 1800 - the name Sassicaia means place of many stones, and the gravelly soil has been compared to those found in the Médoc. He planted Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot and engaged the services of Piero Antinori's winemaker, Giacomo Tachis. Sassicaia's first vintage was released to universal acclaim in 1968. Sassicaia is now widely accepted as one of the world's greatest Cabernet Sauvignon wines and made history recently, being the first single wine to be granted its own DOC. The wines of Sassicaia combine intense notes of cassis and cedary elegance, with extraordinary power and length.

1999 Charmes-Chambertin, Grand Cru, Nicolas Potel, Burgundy, France 50.00

Nicolas Potel started his négociant house in 1998. The economic crisis in 2002 forced him to require more capital, which he acquired through Cottin Frères, who bought 100% of the business and now control the business that bears his name. Nicolas' style remains very pure. He vinifies with whole bunches when the stems are ripe. He is careful never to over extract nor over oak his wines, allowing the character of the vineyard and vintage to shine through.

SWEET WINES 50ML

1998 Château d'Yquem, Sauternes, France 45.00

Often described as the greatest sweet wine in the world. After centuries of family ownership, Yquem was finally sold in acrimonious circumstances to Louis Vuitton-Moët-Hennessy in 1999. However, its former owner and director Alexandre de Lur-Saluçere mains in charge. Located on the highest hill in Sauternes and enjoys the best growing conditions in the whole appellation. The 110-hectare vineyard is planted with 80% Sémillon and 20% Sauvignon Blanc. Only fully botrytized fruit is picked by the 150 highly skilled pickers and yields are so low that each vine produces only one glass of wine.
