SPARKLING

Born in Ireland. Trained in France. 'Best in Show' in England.

The story of Dermot Sugrue is one of quiet determination — a man driven to put English sparkling wine firmly on the world map, crafting cuvées that rival Champagne, vintage after vintage.

After many years building his reputation as head winemaker at Nyetimber and Wiston — and later as the UK's most sought-after consultant winemaker — Dermot's namesake project is now his full-time pursuit, alongside another hugely talented independent winemaker: his wife, Ana.

With new backing from our very own Angela Hartnett, Limewood's Robin Hutson, and actor Hugh Bonneville, it's hard not to feel that the best is yet to come — and that Sugrue South Downs will continue to redefine excellence in English wine.

We're thrilled to showcase a small selection of their wines, each expressing passion, patience, and a touch of Sussex soil magic in every glass.

1520 'Rock Story', Extra Brut NV 98.00

Exclusively crafted for restaurants, this is a multi-vintage blend including reserve wine dating back to 2011. Unusually for Dermot, this is Pinot-dominant with just one third Chardonnay. The resultant wine is packed full of precise and welcoming orchard fruit flavours, with a hint of bakery goodness and the ever-present Sugrue mineral finish.

1524 'The Trouble With Dreams', Brut NV 135.00

Father Paul McMahon – the head of a monastic order of Catholic priests at Storrington Priory, West Sussex – looked out one day and realised his land could have the potential for planting vines. He proposed that Dermot nurture a small vineyard at the foot of the South Downs to make wine for the Priory. Dermot agreed, on the condition he could take a portion of the grapes to make his own wine. The grapes were a great success – so much so that the birds flying over the vineyard devoured them all, ending the hopes of the inaugural 2008 vintage. "That's the trouble with dreams," quipped Father Paul. The name stuck. This multi-vintage release is astonishingly layered and complex with chalky minerality and bright acidity at its core.

1516 'Cuvee Boz', Blanc de Blancs, Brut 2020 170.00

This is made only in exceptional years, and in 2020 exclusively from fruit grown in the esteemed Mount Harry vineyard. Dermot regards it as 'the ultimate expression of Chardonnay on English chalk'. Crisp, mineral, saline with razor-sharp precision. This is fondly named after Dermot's late brother who was as bright as the wine itself.

1519 'ZODO', Brut Nature NV 200.00

Most sparkling wines are 'dosed' with sugar before release to counteract otherwise over-zealous acidity. To avoid doing this in a country whose weather is notoriously on the cooler side is incredibly rare, to do so and release a wine with this level of poise and balance is a testament to the skill and patience of Sugrue. The wine spends an extended period of time ageing on lees (the yeast cells left over after fermentation) to naturally soften the acidity and allow the pure crunchy Granny Smith apple, lemon peel and chalky minerality to take centre stage.

Exton Park Vineyard, Hampshire

2014

500.00

SEA-AGED VERSUS CELLAR-AGED ENGLISH SPARKLING WINE SET

Both wines are from the esteemed 2014 vintage, but it's their ageing process that promises an unrivalled tasting experience.

'60 Above' was aged in the traditional method, 60 metres above sea level in Exton Park's wine cellar.

The barnacle-covered '60 Below' is aged 60 metres beneath the sea, off the coast of Brittany.

This is the first-ever English sparkling wine to embrace the mysteries of the deep.

It is thought that the constant movement of the water on bottles whilst they are still on lees has the potential to develop the wine in a different way.

Exton Park is the first English producer to attempt this complex ageing process.

Murano is delighted to have secured a limited number of the 150 tasting packs released.
