Our Favourites

What the team is drinking

White

Stefano, Sommelier

3290 Christian Tschida, Weiss 'Himmel Auf Erden', Burgenland, Austria 2023 125.00

Essentially a "heaven on earth" juice box for grown-ups who prefer their grapes with a side of Austrian mysticism. It's so vibrant and hazy that one sip might convince you that gravity is merely a suggestion.

Yeva, Receptionist

3224 Maso Furli, Gewurztraminer, Trentino, Italy 2022 95.00

Gewurztraminer that's ditched the usual floral perfume for a mountain-air-crispness that feels like a spa day in the Italian Alps. It's so unapologetically aromatic and spicy that your nose might actually need a moment to process all that high-altitude elegance.

Piero, Head Chef

3133 Ettore Germano, Riesling Renano 'Herzu', Piedmont, Italy 2023 120.00

A Riesling that's done away with the polite German small talk, opting instead for a sharp, stony intensity that could probably cut glass. It's so bracingly crisp and mineral-heavy that drinking it feels like being slapped in the face by a very sophisticated Italian glacier

Red

Ladi, Head Sommelier

7241 Malibran, I.G.T. Marca Trevigiana, Incroci Manzoni, 'Teatrale' 2023 72.00

Served chilled, this vibrant red from Veneto is so ethereal and pale in the glass that it sits right on the edge of being a deep, structured rosé. It bursts with high-toned wild berries, pink grapefruit, and a distinct line of refreshing acidity. Made of 6 different grape varieties all created by legendary Professor Manzoni.

Andrea, Assistant Restaurant Manager

7117 Sandro Fay, Valtellina Superiore Valgella Riserva, 'Carteria', Lombardy, Italy 2019 135.00

This Nebbiolo is so elegantly structured and high-altitude-chic that it makes other mountain wines look like they're still wearing hiking boots. It manages to be both brooding and ethereal, offering a sip of the Valtellina sun that's smoother than a velvet tuxedo on a ski slope.

Jake, Chef de Partie

7313 Conti Constanti Merlot 'Ardingo', Tuscany, Italy 2020 210.00

Merlot that has clearly been taking lessons in Tuscan nobility, trading simple fruitiness for a profile that's as dark, brooding, and expensive as a Renaissance mystery. It's so plush and impeccably tailored that drinking it feels less like a glass of wine and more like an audience with a very suave, velvet-clad count.

SPARKLING

Born in Ireland. Trained in France. 'Best in Show' in England.

The story of Dermot Sugrue is one of quiet determination — a man driven to put English sparkling wine firmly on the world map, crafting cuvées that rival Champagne, vintage after vintage.

After many years building his reputation as head winemaker at Nyetimber and Wiston — and later as the UK's most sought-after consultant winemaker — Dermot's namesake project is now his full-time pursuit, alongside another hugely talented independent winemaker: his wife, Ana.

With new backing from our very own Angela Hartnett, Limewood's Robin Hutson, and actor Hugh Bonneville, it's hard not to feel that the best is yet to come — and that Sugrue South Downs will continue to redefine excellence in English wine.

We're thrilled to showcase a small selection of their wines, each expressing passion, patience, and a touch of Sussex soil magic in every glass.

1520 'Rock Story', Extra Brut NV 98.00

Exclusively crafted for restaurants, this is a multi-vintage blend including reserve wine dating back to 2011. Unusually for Dermot, this is Pinot-dominant with just one third Chardonnay. The resultant wine is packed full of precise and welcoming orchard fruit flavours, with a hint of bakery goodness and the ever-present Sugrue mineral finish.

1516 'Cuvee Boz', Blanc de Blancs, Brut 2020 170.00

This is made only in exceptional years, and in 2020 exclusively from fruit grown in the esteemed Mount Harry vineyard. Dermot regards it as 'the ultimate expression of Chardonnay on English chalk'. Crisp, mineral, saline with razor-sharp precision. This is fondly named after Dermot's late brother who was as bright as the wine itself.

1519 'ZODO', Brut Nature NV 200.00

Most sparkling wines are 'dosed' with sugar before release to counteract otherwise over-zealous acidity. To avoid doing this in a country whose weather is notoriously on the cooler side is incredibly rare, to do so and release a wine with this level of poise and balance is a testament to the skill and patience of Sugrue. The wine spends an extended period of time ageing on lees (the yeast cells left over after fermentation) to naturally soften the acidity and allow the pure crunchy Granny Smith apple, lemon peel and chalky minerality to take centre stage.

SPARKLING

Exton Park Vineyard, Hampshire

2014

500.00

SEA-AGED VERSUS CELLAR-AGED ENGLISH SPARKLING WINE SET

Both wines are from the esteemed 2014 vintage, but it's their ageing process that promises an unrivalled tasting experience.

'60 Above' was aged in the traditional method, 60 metres above sea level in Exton Park's wine cellar.

The barnacle-covered '60 Below' is aged 60 metres beneath the sea, off the coast of Brittany.

This is the first-ever English sparkling wine to embrace the mysteries of the deep.

It is thought that the constant movement of the water on bottles whilst they are still on lees has the potential to develop the wine in a different way.

Exton Park is the first English producer to attempt this complex ageing process.

Murano is delighted to have secured a limited number of the 150 tasting packs released.
